there are no offices at the internal borders to Danmark. The Mobile control groups are situated all over Germany. Regarding the internal border to Danmark you can use the complete wording, especially that there is a Mobile Control Group in Flensburg situated. There is no Customs Office in Germany which carries out permanent customs controls at the border to Danmark.

I suppose that I am in time with my answer - and suggest the following words - good luck!

Rgards,

[REDACTED]

1. There are no permanent customs controls carried in Germany at the borders to other member states.
2. Permanent customs controls are foreseen in Germany only for goods coming from third countries via german harbours and airports. Other customs controls are carried out in Germany with so called Mobile Control Groups. These Mobile Controls Groups are situated all over Germany.
3. Customs controls are carried out on the basis of risk management. Controls are not carried out on the basis of frontier passages, only. Mobile Customs Controls on the internal borders are carried out sporadically and locally restricted.
4. There are about 220 customs officers active all over in Schleswig-Holstein. They are organized in 9 Mobile Control Groups. They are mostly active in the harbours of Schleswig-Holstein. Those harbours are the frontiers to third countries in Schleswig Holstein.
5. There is only one german mobile control group active at the internal border to Danmark. This group is situated in Flensburg.

Office 1 in XXXXXXX main task: yy customs officers working there

Office 2 in zzzzzzz main task yy customs officers working there

Office 3 in yyyyyyyyyy

Etc.

Totally : 350 officers

Yes at the border to Poland and the Czech republic. But they are organized as Inland Customs Offices and clearing goods coming from third countries with transit procedure or are dealing with exports. They do not control passengers.

Yes, we have Customs offices working 24/7 at internal border. However, they are not numerous. Their role is to provide customs clearance services, not to implement control/ surveillance measures.

Dear all...

Sorry to interrupt but I have a small question of a general character:

Does there in your country exist customs offices placed at the internal border opened 24 hours a day

I suppose that you have such at the external border i.e. harbour and airports, but are they also such offices placed at the internal borders.

It will be nice if it is possible to have your (short) answer during today Monday 30 May 2011. It is not necessary to list them - just if there are such offices.
